NOTE: The above item is a one piece set containing the one piece medallion and a wooden stand. This is an alternate for the Patrick Henry Award Plaque.

Bronze Patrick Henry Award may be presented to youth, 18 years and younger, for outstanding patriotic activities in their community. The chapter making the award shall determine the specific criteria for this award. There is no limit to the number of Bronze Patrick Henry medallions awarded each year. However, no individual will be awarded the medallion more than once. Chapters are expected to keep records of those recipients, purpose, and date of award. The miniature Bronze Patrick Henry medal is NOT a separate award. To obtain this miniature medal, the recipient must be awarded the bronze medallion.

Silver Patrick Henry Award may be awarded to an adult who has made a significant contribution(s) to the cause of patriotism, either in their community or to the Military Order of the World Wars. Unless otherwise stated below, this award is given at the discretion of the authorized region, department, state, and chapter commanders. No other authority is required.

a. Two silver medallions each year may be awarded by each region, department, and state commander.

b. Two silver medallions each year may be awarded by chapters whose membership is less than 100 living members.

c. Four silver medallions each year may be awarded by chapters whose membership is between 100 and 200 living members.

d. Six silver medallions each year may be awarded by chapters whose membership is over 200 living members.

e. When petitioned by a chapter commander, the vice commander-in-chief may authorize one additional Silver Patrick Henry medallion for each region within their area of responsibility. Full written documentation must accompany each request for these additional medallions.

f. Youth Leadership Conference directors may present one silver medallion, each year, to an adult who has made a significant contribution to the unit establishing the conference.

g. The senior vice and the four vice commanders-in-chief may present one silver medallion, each year, for each region within their area of responsibility.

No individual may receive this award more than once. This medallion may not be presented to anyone for any reason other than outstanding patriotic achievement. Presenters of this award will notify the respective chapter with name, date, and purpose. The chapter will maintain records of those receiving the award and forward this information to National Headquarters who will be responsible for posting this data to the MOWW web site. The miniature Silver Patrick Henry medal is NOT a separate award. To obtain this miniature medal, the recipient must be awarded the silver medallion. No individual may receive this award more than once.

Gold Patrick Henry Award. Only the Commander-in-Chief (CINC), Senior Vice Commander-in-Chief, and the four Vice Commanders-in-Chief may present the Gold Patrick Henry award to an adult for extraordinary patriotic achievements. The CINC may award three gold medallions per year. The senior and vice commanders-in-chief may make one award each year within their area of responsibility. Those making the awards must present them during the year in which they were authorized, and inform national headquarters of the individual's name, date, and purpose for which the award was given. The miniature Gold Patrick Henry medal is not a separate award. To obtain this miniature medal, the recipient must be awarded the gold medallion. No individual may receive the award more than once.

Sample Left: Patrick Henry Bronze Organizational Plaque May be presented to a veteran's organization, school, or specific group of individuals in recognition of their efforts in support of the Military Order of the World Wars patriotic goals, e.g., Youth Leadership Conferences, Massing of the Colors, ROTC/JROTC and Boy/Girl Scout programs.
